

We have enjoyed not having all those tele-marketers calling us at all times of the day or evening. Just because we have done business with a company doesn't mean they need to keep calling us. If we want to do business with them, we will call them! Please leave our law as it is now, we like it that way.